Speaker: Barry Andrews

VP, Commercial Chevron Asia Pacific Exploration and Production Company

We are very fortunate to have Barry Andrews as our speaker.

Barry Andrews is the vice president of Commercial for Chevron Asia Pacific Exploration and Production Company, a role he assumed in October 2010. Previously, Andrews served as the head of Chevron's geothermal and power business and was based in Jakarta, Indonesia.

During his career at Chevron, Andrews has held roles in legal, business development and management positions in Los Angeles, El Segundo, Brea, Singapore and Manila. He joined Chevron in 1983 as an assistant tax counsel.

Andrews received a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics from the University of Notre Dame in 1975; a Juris Doctorate degree from Loyola Law School Los Angeles in 1980; and a Master of Laws (in Taxation) degree from New York University in 1981.

We hope you can attend and bring your questions; it will be an interesting event.
